DIRECTIONS

UPON the Tribunal, by email, inviting each of the appellants to state the authority on which they relied to apply to the Tribunal for suspension of the Charity Commission's decision;

AND UPON each appellant conceding that there is no such power;

AND UPON each appellant asking the Tribunal to "invite the Charity Commission to agree" to a suspension;

1. The Appellant's applications are refused – due to lack of jurisdiction to make the order/direction sought.
2. Further, the Tribunal states that it does not consider it appropriate for it, as an independent judicial body which has not made any findings, to "invite" the Charity Commission to take steps.
