

Appeal number: CA/2020/0003

FIRST-TIER TRIBUNAL
GENERAL REGULATORY CHAMBER
(CHARITY)

SALLY LIVINGSTONE Appellant
(Livingstone House Mother of the Harvest Ministries 1102286)

- and -

THE CHARITY COMMISSION FOR ENGLAND Respondent
AND WALES

DIRECTIONS

The Tribunal having received a Notice of Appeal on 21 January 2020, referring to an undated disqualification order in respect of her trusteeship of the above-named charity which the Appellant says she received on 13 December 2019

And the Tribunal having received on 22 January 2020 an application from the Appellant for a stay of 8 weeks, and on 30 March 2020 an application for a further stay of 8 weeks, in which to file her grounds of appeal, which applications are supported by medical evidence that the Appellant is suffering from and receiving treatment for a stress-related condition.

IT IS DIRECTED THAT:

1. The Appellant has until 5 pm on Monday 25 May 2020 to file her grounds of appeal. She does not need to send any evidence at that time as further Directions will be issued if the appeal is to proceed.
2. The Respondent need not send its Response to the Notice of Appeal until the Tribunal issues further Directions having considered the grounds of appeal.
3. The parties may apply for these Directions to be varied or discharged.

(Signed)
Judge Alison McKenna

Dated: 31 March 2020